

Domestic

1. How successful has Hillary Clinton been as secretary of state?
2. If the Supreme Court strikes down the Individual Mandate provision of the Affordable Care Act, what will be the ramifications?
3. How much can Republicans gain from post-Census redistricting?
4. Should the U.S. dip into strategic oil supplies to stabilize gas prices?
5. What will be the effects of the FTC's call for Congress to protect consumer's digital privacy?
6. Will Obama's focus on Higher Education help him in the 2012 elections?
7. What can the Pentagon learn from the Afghanistan shootings?
8. Do the shortcomings of U.S. schools pose a national security threat?
9. What can the GOP do to win more female voters?
10. Will the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's new scare campaign compel Americans to stop smoking?
11. Why hasn't George Zimmerman been arrested in the Trayvon Martin case?
12. Is the end of the long process of choosing a Republican presidential nominee in sight?

Economic

1. In what direction will Jim Yong Kim lead the World Bank?
2. What will be the impact of rising fuel costs for the U.S. consumer?
3. How will the air industry deal with the latest economic challenges?
4. What does the year's rise in real estate sales suggest?
5. How shrewd is Ben Bernanke's economic stewardship for the larger economy?
6. What does the rise in U.S. exports of energy suggest for the domestic economy?
7. Is it time for the U.S. government to end tax subsidies to oil companies?
8. Does the slowdown in CEO's direct compensation suggest they are overly maligned?
9. Is there relief in sight for the long-term under and unemployed?
10. Should the U.S. do more to encourage Cuba's move towards capitalism?
11. Does the House Republican budget proposal set the stage for another showdown when the current fiscal year ends on October 1?
12. Will Crowdfunding lead to more jobs in the U.S.?

International

1. One year on, what has the Arab Spring accomplished?
2. Can the international community persuade North Korea to give up its quest to become a nuclear power?
3. Can the peace plan agreed to by Syrian President Bashar al-Assad bring an end to political violence in the country?
4. Has Japan done enough to ensure the safety of its nuclear energy system?
5. Has Vladimir Putin undermined democracy in Russia?
6. Can U.S. - Pakistan relations be salvaged?
7. Has the Mexican government gained the upper hand in its conflict with powerful drug cartels?
8. What can India do to address poverty and inequality for the lower class?
9. How can Somalia bring an end to its war with al Shabaab?
10. What can the P5+1 accomplish in upcoming talks with Iran over its nuclear program?
11. What will the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development accomplish?
12. Are U.S. companies doing enough to ensure the health and safety of employees at Chinese factories that manufacture their products?
13. Does the international community need to do more to help stabilize Libya?
14. Will Ecowas be successful in its attempt to end the coup in Mali?

Issues for States

1. Without strong federal policy governing stem cell research, should individual states move forward to establish their own guidelines?
2. Should states with “Stand Your Ground” laws move to repeal them?
3. Has the strict Alabama immigration law done its job?
4. Should more states bordering Mexico adopt Arizona’s immigration laws?
5. Will congressional redistricting affect the upcoming elections in Massachusetts?
6. Should states be allowed to charge internet retail companies sales tax?
7. Are states with medical marijuana stores the next target in the U.S. war on drugs?
8. With the rising cost of higher education, should states be allocating more funding to state colleges and universities?
9. Does healthcare belong in the hands of the states?
10. Is it really necessary for the federal government to step in on Texas’ voter id law?
11. Will Michigan’s efforts to create jobs through mining be good for the state in the long run?
12. Should all states recognize gay marriage for legal purposes?